Financial Report For Atlanta Center Presented To Members

Brad LeRay, Coordinator for the Atlanta Center, presented a brief overview of the Atlanta Center's yearly expenditures and financial needs after the July 17th Sunday service. Brad covered current status of donations and pledges to the Atlanta Center and compared them to the same time period for 2004.

While noting that the Atlanta Center is in sound financial condition, pledges and donations are down about 20% from 2004. An appeal was made for members to consider the value the Atlanta Center brings to members lives, and for members to evaluate their level of financial commitments. For those interested in pledging or donating funds, contact the Atlanta Center for more information. Forms are also available in the bookroom.
